

FREE CARL

Carl Malaskiewicz-Blaise, a US citizen, has been a prisoner of Immigration Canada since May 2007. Carl attracted the attention of the US Secret Service when he drew satirical cartoons of George W. Bush.

The US government then trumped up charges and coerced a guilty plea with empty promises. After serving his time, Carl traveled to Canada to claim political asylum. Canadian authorities seem to be ignoring the truth and only paying attention to the US government's flawed story. Carl wants to live and work peacefully in Canada and have the false information removed from his record.
